CLAUSE ONE Purpose

1.1. The purpose of this MoU is to set the foundation for cooperation between the Parties in the fields of education and research, in reliance on mutual benefit, equality and reciprocity.

CLAUSE TWO
Cooperation Areas

2.1. The cooperation established by the provisions hereof may include:

- a) Customized programs for civil servants, government agents and students;
- b) Participation in seminars, academic meetings and specific projects;
- c) Sharing of remote education courses;
- d) Joint research projects;
- e) Interchange of staff and students from the institutions;
- f) Interchange of relevant publications, scholarly materials, and other information;

- g) Scholarships granted according to availability and regulations of each institution; and
- h) Other activities agreed by both Parties.

CLAUSE THREE

Implementation of the Cooperation Activities

3.1. The cooperation actions that may come to be developed as a result of this MoU which require legal formalization for its implementation will have their specific conditions, description of tasks, financial responsibilities, deadlines and other requirements defined in specific instruments.

CLAUSE FOUR

Intellectual Property

4.1. The intellectual property developed jointly by the Parties through the projects established under this MoU will be regulated in separate agreements.

4.2. Whenever a Party receives any information from the other Party, it shall take the necessary measures to protect the intellectual property received.

4.3. The exchange of information under this MoU shall not imply the transfer of any intellectual property rights from one Party to the other, unless expressly agreed otherwise by the Parties.

4.4. Neither Party claims, by virtue of this MoU, any existing or pending intellectual property right or legal interest, including patents, trademarks, copyrights, design patents or other rights of the other Party.

CLAUSE FIVE

Use of the Name

5.1. Any use of a Party's name or logo by the other Party in advertisements, notices or publications relating in any way to the activities described in this MoU shall be subject to prior written approval.

CLAUSE SIX

Financial Arrangements

6.1. This MoU does not imply any transfer of financial resources between the Parties.

6.2. The Parties hereby agree that any future financial commitments will be mutually agreed by them through specific procedures, which will be subject to budget availability and to their specific legislation.

CLAUSE SEVEN

Duration, Amendments and Termination

7.1. This MoU shall enter into force from the date on which the last Party signs it and shall be valid for a period of five (5) years, which may be extended by mutual written agreement between the Parties.

7.2. The terms of this MoU may be revised and modified through mutual written agreement between the Parties.

7.3. Either Party may terminate this MoU, with or without cause, by giving the other Party written notice at least three (3) months in advance, in which case no compensation shall be due from one Party to the other.

7.4. In the event that this MoU is terminated, any activities or agreements undertaken in accordance with it will continue in effect in accordance with their respective terms.

CLAUSE EIGHT

Divergence of Interpretation

8.1. Any divergence of interpretation between the Parties arising out of or relating to this MoU, including interpretation or application of any provision hereof, shall be resolved amicably by the Parties.

CLAUSE NINE

Language

9.1. Two original signed copies of this MoU will be produced, one in Portuguese and the other in English.

CLAUSE TEN
